

The Incarnation of God

John 1:1-18

1:1 – What does in the beginning mean? What began?

What is the Word mean?

Why does John use the Word to describe Jesus? Why doesn't he just say Jesus instead of using symbolic language?

What does it mean that the Word was with God?

What does the phrase the Word was God tell us?

1:2 – What does John 1:2 tell us about the Second Person of the Trinity?

1:3 – What does John 1:3 tell us about the Second Person of the Trinity?

1:4 - What does it mean that in Jesus was life?

What does it mean that the life that Jesus gives us was the light of men?

1:5 - What does it mean that the darkness does not comprehend the light?

1:6 – Who was sent from God?

1:7 – What was John the Baptist's mission?

1:8 – Why wasn't John the Baptist the Light of men?

1:9 – What does it mean that Jesus as the true Light gives light to every man?

Is general revelation about God sufficient for a person to come to a saving knowledge of Him?

The Apostle John refers to the world a lot, 78 times in his gospel, 24 times in 1-3 John and 3 times in Revelation.... What is the world?

1:10 – What does it mean that the world did not know Jesus?

What does it mean to have a personal relationship with Jesus?

1:11 – Who was "His own" that did not receive Jesus?

What does it mean to receive Jesus?

1:12 – While mankind in general did not receive Jesus, what did He do about the few who did believe in His name?

Why does it say we have the right to become children of God? Why doesn't it just say He made us His children?

1:15 – What was John the Baptist's witness of Jesus?

What does it mean to be a child of God?

1:16 – What is it we have all received?

What does it mean to believe in the name of Jesus?

What does grace for grace mean?

How does a person come to believe in the name of Jesus?

1:17 – What is the contrast made here?

1:13 – What does it mean to be born of God?

What does the purpose of God's law differ from His grace?

1:14 – What does it mean that the Word became flesh?

1:18 – What does it mean that no one has seen God at any time? People saw Jesus, wasn't He God?

Does this mean that the Second Person of the Trinity ceased to be God when He took on human form?

What does it mean that Christ is in the bosom of the Father?

What does it mean that Christ dwelt among us?

What is it that Jesus has declared?

How did God dwelling with man differ between the Old Testament and New Testament?

How is it that we beheld the glory of God when He was on earth as a mortal man?

What does it mean that Christ was the only begotten of the Father, does this mean that He was created, that He had a beginning?

How was Jesus full of grace and truth?