

A Voice in the Wilderness

BibleTract.org

John 1:19-34

1:19 Who was the John referred to in this verse and what do we know about him?

How did John demonstrate humility in calling himself a voice?

Who inquired as to whom John the Baptist was?

1:24 What more do we learn about the Jews from Jerusalem?

1:20 Why did John have to say, "I am not the Christ?"

How had the Pharisees missed the point of God's Law?

What does the term "Christ" mean?

Why did God give us the Law?

1:21 Why did the Jews from Jerusalem ask John if he was Elijah?

1:25 – What did the Pharisees question about John?

If the Jews had accepted Jesus as Messiah, would John the Baptist have satisfied the prophesy about Elijah?

Why did they expect that baptism required the authority of the Messiah or Elijah?

What is the next thing the Jews from Jerusalem wondered about John?

How was the baptism of John different than our baptism in the church today?

What makes the Prophet in Deut 18:15 unique from all the other prophets God sent?

1:26 What did John meant that there was One among them that they did not know?

1:23 Who did John say that he was?

1:27 What did John have to say about the Messiah?

1:28 Where did John practice his ministry?

1:29 What happened the next day after John responded to the Jerusalem delegation?

Why did John call Jesus the Lamb of God?

Does this verse say that Jesus paid the sin debt for all people in the world?

1:30 What is John saying in this verse?

1:31 What did John mean by, “I did not know Him?”

1:32-33 What enabled John to identify the Messiah?

1-33 What does it mean that the Messiah baptizes with the Holy Spirit?

1:34 What did John testify about Jesus?

What is significant about the term “Son of God,” aren’t all believers called “sons of God” (John 1:12; Matt. 5:9; Rom. 8:14)?