

The Lame is Healed

John 5:1-18

5:1 – Why did Jesus go to Jerusalem?

How did the man answer the question?

Why does this verse say Jesus went up to Jerusalem?

What did the paralyzed man have that many healthy people lack?

5:2-4 – What was at the sheep gate in Jerusalem?

Can we be saved without having a desperate physical need?

Why did Jesus choose to go to such a place?

What kind of help did Jesus give the man?

5:5-8 – Who did Jesus chose to help?

5:9 – What was the significance of the man carrying his mat?

Why would Jesus choose the one who couldn't help himself?

What should this miracle have revealed to the Jews?

How did Jesus know that the man had been in his condition a long time?

5:10 – What was the problem the Jews had with this healing?

Why did Jesus ask “Do you want to be made well?”?

What is the grace in the law?

What is the 'worse' thing that could happen to the man?

What is the danger in having preconceived notions of how God works?

What did the man who was healed do when he learned who had healed him?

Why did Jesus heal on the Sabbath?

5:16 – Why did the leaders persecute Jesus?

What kind of things do religions today impose on people that are not scriptural?

5:17 – What does God do on the Sabbath?

So what is the lesson that we should learn from Jesus healing on the Sabbath?

What did God rest from after 6 days of creation?

5:11-13 – Why did the man who was healed not know who had healed him?

Did Jesus teach that we are now released from observing the Sabbath?

5:14-15 – Where did Jesus find the man later?

What are some questions to ask ourselves to see if you have the right attitude about setting aside a day of rest:

What did Jesus tell the man?

5:18 – What else besides breaking the Sabbath rules made the Jewish leaders want to kill Jesus?

Are all afflictions caused by sin?

How did the political situation of the time contribute to the hate directed at Jesus from His own people?
