What Happens When a Person Gets Saved

Colossians 1:13-14

What is the great comfort offered by this verse?
What is this power of darkness?
What does the term “redemption” mean?

John 8:24

What is the penalty for sin?
What does life offer the unsaved sinner?
What are the two conditions in which people will die?
How will most people die?
What does it mean to die in sin?
How do you avoid dying in your sins?
How should we view the reality of eternal damnation?
Will there be anyone the unsaved can blame for their plight?
What is one way a person knows they have passed from spiritual death into eternal life?

2 Corinthians 5:17

What things have passed away for the believer?
What has become new?
What is the term that best describes the instant you are saved?
Is John 3:5-7 a reference to water baptism?
So what else could the water refer to?
What does the water really refer to?
What is the role of the Holy Spirit in our salvation?
How does Revelation 22:1 show that water is used to represent the Holy Spirit?
Does the Old Testament use water to represent the Holy Spirit?
How about God's Word, could the reference to water in John 3:5-7 refer to God's Word?
What is the difference of being born of the flesh and Spirit?
How does Jesus' description of how we enter the kingdom of God correct false human hopes?
Is, "you must be born again" a challenge or an invitation?

1 Corinthians 6:19

How is the body the temple of God?
When does the Spirit take up residence in the believer?
How is it possible for the Holy Spirit to indwell believers?

How is the fruit of the Spirit a powerful witness to the world?

Romans 8:16-17

What does the Holy Spirit bear witness with our spirit about?
So what makes us children of God?
What does it mean that we are “heirs of God”?
Of what are we heirs?
What is that living hope to which God has begotten us?
What does it mean that we have an incorruptible inheritance?
What does it mean that we have an undefiled inheritance?
What does it mean that our inheritance will not fade away?
What does it mean that our inheritance is reserved in heaven?
When will we receive the promised inheritance?
What does it mean that we will be like Jesus?
What does it mean in 1 John 3:2 that “it has not yet been revealed what we shall be”?
How do we know we have this inheritance?
When did we receive this guarantee of our salvation?
How is receiving our inheritance to the praise of God's glory?
How is the Holy Spirit a guarantee of our salvation?
How should we respond to the knowledge of our inheritance?

Luke 10:20

What does it mean that our names are in the Book of Life?
Why would God need to make a record by writing our names in the Book of Life?
What about Revelation 3:5 which sounds like our names are subject to being blotted out of the book of life? Does this indicate that we could lose our salvation?

John 10:28

Is it possible for anyone to lose their salvation?
Can you be saved if you are not sure you have been saved?
What are people generally trusting in who doubt their salvation?
How may we now we have eternal security?
What is it that we may know from reading the Bible?
When does eternal life begin?

John 3:36

How does God regard those who believe Him?
How does God regard those who do not believe Him?
So when we become believers, what is removed off us?
What is God's wrath?
Why would God inflict eternal punishment on people for not believing over a finite period of time? Is this fair?
Why does John 3:36 say that unbelievers "shall not see life" instead of "will not see everlasting life"?
What is the quality life that unbelievers miss out on in the here and now?
When does this great quality of life for believers begin?

Romans 5:1

What does it mean that we are justified by faith?
What is the wonderful by-product of being justified by faith that this verse points out?
What is peace? How does the world view peace?
Can you be in turmoil in the world and be at peace with God?
Does the world notice the kind of peace that believers have?
What are some other by-products of having a relationship with Jesus that are related to peace?
