

Psalm 23

The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want. He makes me to lie down in green pastures; he leads me beside the still waters. He restores my soul; he leads me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for You are with me; your rod and Your staff, they comfort me. You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies; you anoint my head with oil; my cup runs over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.

The Good Shepherd

You will have nothing to worry about if Jesus Christ is Lord of your life because He will supply everything you need. God knows what is best for us and directs us to where we can get what we need to live. And by His grace, He pours out blessings that are exceedingly, abundantly beyond what we need for mere existence. With Jesus Christ as our Shepherd (John 10:11), we don't fear anyone or anything even under the threat of death (Romans 8:38-39). For God's presence is readily apparent in the prompting and help we receive from His Holy Spirit (Romans 8:16). He has given us a purpose in life and made abundant provision for us to be successful in our mission. So no matter what circumstances we encounter in this world, we have confidence that God is using them to bring a greater good into our lives; even if we don't realize it until we are given our eternal home with Him (Romans 8:28). If you want what only the Good Shepherd can provide, invite Him to come into your life today.
