

God shall not strive with man
forever

Genesis 6:3

God shall not strive with man
forever

Genesis 6:3

God shall not strive with man
forever

Genesis 6:3

God shall not strive with man
forever

Genesis 6:3

God shall not strive with man
forever

Genesis 6:3

God shall not strive with man
forever

Genesis 6:3

Time Is Running Out

There will come a time for each person when God will cease trying to save them. This is what God did in Noah's day and it is an important principle: "He who is often rebuked, and hardens his neck, will suddenly be destroyed, and that without remedy" (Proverbs 29:1). Pride can be fatal. It can cause God to give people over to their evil desires (Romans 1:18-32). It is dangerous to persist in the condition of not receiving Jesus Christ as Savior. There will come a time when the Lord's longsuffering (2 Peter 3:9) will cease and He will declare His church complete. He will take His church out of the world and send those that remain a strong delusion to make it even easier for them to persist in their unsaved condition (2 Thessalonians 2:11-12). "Behold, now is the accepted time; behold, now is the day of salvation" (2 Corinthians 6:2). So don't delay, you can invite Jesus into your life as Savior and Lord at this moment where ever you are for, "whoever calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved" (Acts 2:21).

BibleTract.org

Time Is Running Out

There will come a time for each person when God will cease trying to save them. This is what God did in Noah's day and it is an important principle: "He who is often rebuked, and hardens his neck, will suddenly be destroyed, and that without remedy" (Proverbs 29:1). Pride can be fatal. It can cause God to give people over to their evil desires (Romans 1:18-32). It is dangerous to persist in the condition of not receiving Jesus Christ as Savior. There will come a time when the Lord's longsuffering (2 Peter 3:9) will cease and He will declare His church complete. He will take His church out of the world and send those that remain a strong delusion to make it even easier for them to persist in their unsaved condition (2 Thessalonians 2:11-12). "Behold, now is the accepted time; behold, now is the day of salvation" (2 Corinthians 6:2). So don't delay, you can invite Jesus into your life as Savior and Lord at this moment where ever you are for, "whoever calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved" (Acts 2:21).

BibleTract.org

Time Is Running Out

There will come a time for each person when God will cease trying to save them. This is what God did in Noah's day and it is an important principle: "He who is often rebuked, and hardens his neck, will suddenly be destroyed, and that without remedy" (Proverbs 29:1). Pride can be fatal. It can cause God to give people over to their evil desires (Romans 1:18-32). It is dangerous to persist in the condition of not receiving Jesus Christ as Savior. There will come a time when the Lord's longsuffering (2 Peter 3:9) will cease and He will declare His church complete. He will take His church out of the world and send those that remain a strong delusion to make it even easier for them to persist in their unsaved condition (2 Thessalonians 2:11-12). "Behold, now is the accepted time; behold, now is the day of salvation" (2 Corinthians 6:2). So don't delay, you can invite Jesus into your life as Savior and Lord at this moment where ever you are for, "whoever calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved" (Acts 2:21).

BibleTract.org

Time Is Running Out

There will come a time for each person when God will cease trying to save them. This is what God did in Noah's day and it is an important principle: "He who is often rebuked, and hardens his neck, will suddenly be destroyed, and that without remedy" (Proverbs 29:1). Pride can be fatal. It can cause God to give people over to their evil desires (Romans 1:18-32). It is dangerous to persist in the condition of not receiving Jesus Christ as Savior. There will come a time when the Lord's longsuffering (2 Peter 3:9) will cease and He will declare His church complete. He will take His church out of the world and send those that remain a strong delusion to make it even easier for them to persist in their unsaved condition (2 Thessalonians 2:11-12). "Behold, now is the accepted time; behold, now is the day of salvation" (2 Corinthians 6:2). So don't delay, you can invite Jesus into your life as Savior and Lord at this moment where ever you are for, "whoever calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved" (Acts 2:21).

BibleTract.org

Time Is Running Out

There will come a time for each person when God will cease trying to save them. This is what God did in Noah's day and it is an important principle: "He who is often rebuked, and hardens his neck, will suddenly be destroyed, and that without remedy" (Proverbs 29:1). Pride can be fatal. It can cause God to give people over to their evil desires (Romans 1:18-32). It is dangerous to persist in the condition of not receiving Jesus Christ as Savior. There will come a time when the Lord's longsuffering (2 Peter 3:9) will cease and He will declare His church complete. He will take His church out of the world and send those that remain a strong delusion to make it even easier for them to persist in their unsaved condition (2 Thessalonians 2:11-12). "Behold, now is the accepted time; behold, now is the day of salvation" (2 Corinthians 6:2). So don't delay, you can invite Jesus into your life as Savior and Lord at this moment where ever you are for, "whoever calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved" (Acts 2:21).

BibleTract.org

Time Is Running Out

There will come a time for each person when God will cease trying to save them. This is what God did in Noah's day and it is an important principle: "He who is often rebuked, and hardens his neck, will suddenly be destroyed, and that without remedy" (Proverbs 29:1). Pride can be fatal. It can cause God to give people over to their evil desires (Romans 1:18-32). It is dangerous to persist in the condition of not receiving Jesus Christ as Savior. There will come a time when the Lord's longsuffering (2 Peter 3:9) will cease and He will declare His church complete. He will take His church out of the world and send those that remain a strong delusion to make it even easier for them to persist in their unsaved condition (2 Thessalonians 2:11-12). "Behold, now is the accepted time; behold, now is the day of salvation" (2 Corinthians 6:2). So don't delay, you can invite Jesus into your life as Savior and Lord at this moment where ever you are for, "whoever calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved" (Acts 2:21).

BibleTract.org